Secret Bear found Grumpy Bear
looking a little blue.

“What’s wrong?” she asked him.
“Can you tell me or is it
a secret?”

“I’m just feeling grumpy today,” he replied.
“That’s all.”

“I know just the thing to cheer you up—a picnic!” Secret Bear said.

“Okay,” said
Grumpy Bear, smiling
just a bit.

Secret Bear and Grumpy Bear hurried to invite their friends to a picnic.

“That sounds cheerific!”

said Cheer Bear. “I’ll bring my picnic blanket.”

“Uh-oh,” Cheer Bear said.

“I can’t find my picnic blanket anywhere.”

“See,” said Grumpy Bear.

“Something’s going wrong already.”

“Don’t worry,”

Secret Bear replied. “It’s sure to turn up somewhere.”

Just then a big fat raindrop plopped onto Grumpy Bear's nose.

"Now the rain's going to spoil everything," he cried.

“This is a terrible day for a picnic.”

“No worries,”

said Cheer Bear. “I have umbrellas.”

Secret Bear smiled and said, “And the secret about clouds is that they all have silver linings.”

“What do you mean?”
asked Grumpy Bear.

“I mean something good will come of the rain,” said Secret Bear. “Just wait and see!”

"And there it is!" said Cheer Bear.

"A beautiful rainbow to ride down to our picnic!

Whee!"

An illustration of four Care Bears (Share Bear, Tenderheart Bear, Grumpy Bear, and Cheer Bear) laughing and falling from a rainbow. Share Bear is at the top, holding a blue umbrella. Tenderheart Bear is in the middle, holding a red heart. Grumpy Bear is at the bottom left, holding a black cloud. Cheer Bear is at the bottom right, holding a rainbow-striped heart. They are all falling into a pile of white clouds. A yellow and green umbrella lies on the clouds at the bottom right.

Laughing, the Care Bears landed in a heap at Share Bear's feet.

"What's the matter?" Cheer Bear asked.

“I brought five sunshine bars and five rainbow bars, but they all broke in two,” said Share Bear, sighing.

"What terrible luck," grumbled Grumpy Bear.

“Remember, every cloud has a silver lining,”
Secret Bear said.

“That’s right!” exclaimed Funshine Bear.
“Now we can each taste both treats!”

“Come with us to the picnic, Bedtime Bear!”
said Cheer Bear.

"I can't. I lost my starry nightcap, and I have to find it," Bedtime Bear replied.

“Oh dear, another problem,” said Grumpy Bear.

“Remember the silver lining,” said Secret Bear, smiling. “We just have to look for it.”

"And for Bedtime Bear's missing cap!" Best Friend Bear added.

“Look, Share Bear found my missing picnic blanket!” Cheer Bear said.

“That’s lucky for us,” said Secret Bear.

“We never would have found the blanket
if Bedtime Bear hadn’t lost his nightcap.”

“But we still haven’t found it,” said
Bedtime Bear.

“There it is!”

shouted Secret Bear.

“It was in my favorite napping spot,” said Bedtime Bear.

“This is also a perfect spot for a picnic!” Cheer Bear added.

“Now let’s have some fun!”

Funshine Bear shouted.

“Not yet,” said Secret Bear.
“Love-a-lot Bear, Wish Bear, and Bashful Heart Bear aren’t here yet.”

“What’s the silver lining
in that?” wondered Grumpy Bear.

“Sorry we’re late!” said Wish Bear.

“We were taking time to fill the picnic basket with everyone’s favorites,” said Love-a-lot Bear.

“And making enough rainbow punch for everyone,” said Bashful Heart Bear.

“You were right,” said Grumpy Bear.
“Every cloud really does have a silver lining!”

“All you have to do is look for it!” said Secret Bear.

“And best of all, this one is delicious!”
